

NATURAL GAS AND JOBS: BY THE NUMBERS

1.7 million

The number of U.S. jobs currently attributable to shale development.

3 million

The number of U.S. shale development jobs projected by 2020.

$83,305

The average annual core job salary.

232,000

The number of jobs in Pennsylvania associated with shale in 2013.

100

The number of new factories, due to reduced energy costs, set to come online by 2017.

99

The percentage of lost PA jobs that have been recovered due to energy industry growth.

96

The percentage of new industry hires that came from the Appalachian Basin in 2012.

40

The percentage of job growth in the oil and gas industry since the recession.

9

The number of months needed to train most jobs coming from energy-production growth.

2

Pennsylvania's ranking among gas-producing states in 2013.